

Germany has a great ride-sharing system. You can save money and meet interesting people. If you are driving somewhere, call them up and tell them where you're going. If someone takes you up on your offer, you pick them up at the MFZ office and they pay you a set fee. If you want to go somewhere, call them or check www.mitfahr2000.de and see if you're interested in anything. In Munich, their office is located at Laemmer street 6, right near the hauptbahnhof (main train station).
